

Ethics

Roger L. Shields (retired Brigadier General, US Army) Neel-Schaffer, Inc.

The program will focus on a quick review of the canon of ethics followed by approximately 8 talking points. Also included will be a discussion of a few ethics cases.

Retired Brigadier General with 39 years service in the Army/Army National Guard. 32 years full-time with the Mississippi National Guard culminating as Chief of Staff. Also served as Training Officer at the battalion, brigade, and state level. Served as a senior commander during Hurricane Katrina on the Gulf Coast. Have worked three years at Neel-Schaffer Engineering as the Director of Training.